Michigan was second in the nation in monies donated for both of these seasons

Brandie Reamy had a great weekend at State Tournament on April 17/18

At Monitor Lanes in the doubles portion of the tournament, she rolled an 833 series. Her games were 288-267-278.

Some awesome bowling from a former Michigan State USBC Queen!!

The perfect games just keep coming!

On April 25th, Jami Selden-Manor from Dewitt, rolled her 300 game also during the doubles and singles portion of the tournament.

Congratulation to both of you!

State Tournaments

The centers all did a remarkable job keeping us all safe.... and we thank them for all they did during these tournaments.

But we had to comment on Monitor Lanes "Attempts to Cure" with a refreshing drink.

Thanks, for the smiles during the tournament. Not sure which drink was the most popular, but they were a great HIT with the bowlers!

Just a reminder...thanks for your patience as the final results are being verified ....

Michigan State USBC Open Tournament

Steve Krywy, Sterling Heights rolled an 800 series (on the nose) at the Open Championships on April 18th during the doubles and singles portion of the tournament at M-66.

On April 17th, Adam Dee of Novi rolled his 300 game in the doubles and singles house. (M-66)
