

Conner Johnson wins the 2024 Michigan State Masters Tournament at Continental Lanes in Kalamazoo

Conner Johnson of Kalamazoo won the 2024 Michigan State USBC Masters Tournament held at Continental Lanes in Kalamazoo by defeating Tyler Miller of Zeeland, 422-421.

Johnson qualified first with a six-game total of 1368, a 228 average. In the first round of match-play, he was knocked to the loser's bracket by 16th seed Miller, 439-383.

Miller stayed in the winner's bracket by defeating Joe Hutchings of Marshall, 557-524. In the 2nd game of this match, Hutchings rolled a 280, but Miller rolled a 300. Miller then defeated Hayden Hale of Pinckney, 425-390, and Alexander Davis of South Haven, 481-436.

In the loser's bracket, Johnson fought his way back by defeating Jesse Koch of Flint, 423-392, Samantha Knight of Muskegon, 460-353, Scott Tapley of Goshon, IN, 447-423, Hale 491-433, and Davis 423-390 to work his back to the winners bracket where he faced Miller, again.

In the Championship match, Johnson defeated Miller 439-398, forcing another match. Johnson was leading after the first game, but Miller came on strong in the second game. Miller needed a strike in the tenth, but left a solid 9-pin and Johnson won the match, and the championship, 422-421.

In addition to the top prize of $2,500.00, Johnson also earned a free entry into the 2025 Michigan State USBC Masters, and the 2025 USBC Masters.

David Northouse of Byron Center had the high game in qualifying when he bowled a 300 in game four.

The cut to make it to match-play was 1,222 (+22). The 68 qualifiers averaged 191.20 and the top 16 averaged 206.15. The average score during match-play was 379.76 for two games. Johnson averaged 228 during qualifying and 215.5 during match-play.

Stacy Keith of New Boston was the top senior non-qualifier with 1,154 and earned $200.

100% of the entry fee is applied to the prize fund and returned to the bowlers.

The Michigan State USBC Masters Tournament is a USBC certified event operated by the Michigan State USBC.
