

Michigan State Queens - 2024

Standing L – R
Bercier, Giardina, Pollak

The Queens tournament was held at Royal Scot Golf & Bowl in Lansing, on November 2 and 3.

(Mark, your calendar- it is the first weekend in November, every year)

64 bowlers participated in the event. We refer to it as a “marathon, not a sprint”

The competitors bowl two 5 game blocks on Saturday to make the “sweet sixteen” on Sunday

The top Sixteen advancing were: Jordan Snodgrass, Brandie Reamy-Johnson, Ashley Gluba (who claimed our only 300 game on the last game of qualifying) Latasha Cole, Valerie Bercier, Jenna Pollak, Victoria Giardina, Hannah Post, Sarah Litteral, Brianna Andrew, Sarah Pettinger, Tanisha Burris, Julie Oczepek, Lisa Doss, Amanda Berry, and Elizabeth Payeur.

After four more games, for the first time ever, there was a three-way tie for 8th place, with Julie Oczepek, Sarah Litteral, and Lisa Doss. So, a one game roll-off took place, with Lisa rolling a great 266 to advance to the “elite eight”. Also advancing were: Jordan Snodgrass, Victoria Giardina, Valerie Bercier, Jenna Pollak, Brandie Reamy-Johnson, and Latasha Cole.

Four more games were bowled, with the top four advancing to the step ladder finals.

The 3rd place bowler, Victoria Giardina defeated 4th seed Jenna Pollak, 215-180. Victoria then defeated 2nd seed Valerie Bercier, 228 to 210. Even though Jordan started out the finals with a split... she continued her dominance and defeated Victoria 225 to 172.

Our Queen had only one game under 200 throughout the whole tournament, rolling a high game of 298 in the qualifying.

The top (senior) non-qualifier, Sandra Schultz received a check from the MSUSBC.

With many women’s scratch events no longer being held, the Michigan State USBC appreciates the women who are up for this challenge, whether it is for the first time or the 15th time. THANK YOU!
