Stacy Keith

Wins Michigan State Senior Masters Tournament

At Century Bowl in Waterford

Stacy Keith of New Boston captured the 2026 Michigan State USBC Senior Masters Tournament title, claiming the $2,500.00 top prize at Century Bowl in Waterford. Keith secured the championship by defeating Phil Zocharski of Chelsea 379-338 in the final round.

Keith qualified fourth for the tournament with a six-game score of 1287 and remained in the winners' bracket all day. He opened match play by defeating Zocharski 459-441, followed by a 427-385 victory over Gerald Johnson of Taylor. He then sent 2021 champion Gerald Sikora of Ecorse to the losers' bracket with a 402-388 win.

Zocharski qualified fifth with a score of 1286. After his initial loss to Keith, he battled his way back through the elimination bracket. Zocharski advanced by defeating two-time champion (2013, 2023) Bo Goergen of Sanford 463-426, last year’s runner-up Dale Hofmeister of Essexville 457-450, Johnson 486-351, and Sikora 462-405. Zocharski earned $1,250.00 for his runner-up finish.

Defending champion Dave Wodka of Muskegon led the field in qualifying, taking the top spot with a score of 1341 (a 223.5 average). Wodka's run ended on Sunday after a 459-441 loss to Johnson and a narrow 385-376 elimination match against Eric Wayne of Chesterfield.

Five former tournament champions competed in this year's field: Goergen, Sikora, Wodka, 2012 champion Charlie Tapp of Portage, and 2024 champion Mika Koivuniemi of Traverse City.

Tapp and Michael Snow of Sanford were the top two non-qualifying super-seniors, with each earning $250.

The annual Michigan State USBC Senior Masters Tournament features six games of qualifying on Saturday, followed by two-game, double-elimination matches on Sunday. The USBC-certified event is operated entirely by the Michigan State USBC Bowling Association.

The final brackets and prize lists are detailed below.
